President's Message

I hope everyone had a joyful and happy holiday and I am sure Santa brought everything on your wish list (especially the quilting stuff). I would like to thank all the members that brought food, linens, and baby items for the Rainbow Room and the Family Crisis Center. Vance and Amy (the representatives) stayed for our pot luck and enjoyed talking to all our members and said they had a great time. We gave over 70 quilts in total out that night to the two organizations. They were very appreciative. I am so thankful to all our members that gave from the heart with both time and items. Thank you again.

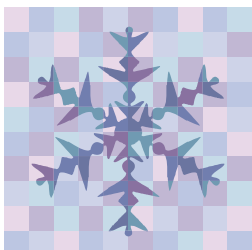

We have a lot coming up this year with great speakers and workshops. Let's try to increase our membership this year. If you have a friend that is interested please invite them to a meeting. Visitors can check us out for two months before joining. We would all like to meet new people and share our quilts and friendship with others.

I would like to thank Barbara Slimp and Evelyn Peacock for putting together the kits for our auction quilts. They looked like fun and some were really easy to do. You can team up with other members to get a top completed and quilted. They would be a great joint project for several members. I took one of the kits home and Etta Miller is going to quilt it, teamwork it fun. We need to start thinking about our auction and working on items to donate. The last two were great fun and I know this next one will be too.

Stay safe and happy quilting,
Judith Patricelli Stone

Minutes of Guild Meeting, December 14, 2009

Meeting was called to order at 7:00pm by vice-president, Judith Stone.

Committee Reports: A total of 22 baby quilts were turned in including the first quilt of the Sandra McCartney/Cyndy Finnell challenge to one quilt a month. Kits to be completed were passed out to members.

Volunteer hours reported for December are 186.50

In Attendance: 26 members, 4 visitors, including our charity reps, Vance Waitland from the Rainbow Room and Amy Karr from Family Crisis Center, Terry Mayfield and Brian Wakefield.

Door prize winners for the evening were Brenda Williams, Janice Croft, Judith Stone, Deena Lee, Georgene Holt, Mary Banks, Barbara Slimp, Terry Mayfield, Sandra McCartney, Becky Rosiere, Etta Miller, Alice Pugh, Marjorie Stowe, Judy Bunch, Delores Mayfield, and Susan Stone
Mr. Brian Wakefield (Nancy's husband) donated a rustic quilt rack which was won by Judith Stone.
Donation items were provided by Evelyn Peacock, Country Stitches Quilt Store in Burleson and Judith Stone.

Treasurers Report: Given by Brenda Williams. Motion to approve was made by Barbara Slimp, seconded by Carolyn Scuzs. Motion passed.

Minutes of Last Meeting: Approved as corrected by Doris Golleher, seconded by Evelyn Peacock. Motion Passed.

Refreshments: Refreshments were provided by Guild Members as a Pot Luck Supper. Thank you to Marie Henicke, Georgene Holt, Darlene Williams and Cyndy Finnell for acting as hostesses for the evening and making everything look so nice and festive.

Sunshine and Shadows: Judith Stone reported that Gail Bumpas recently lost her brother. Gail gave one of our workshops.

Programs, Education and Workshops:

Since there was no set Program for December, we all participated in a Cover Dish supper and the presentation of our donations of needed food, diapers and baby items to our local Rainbow Room and the Family Crisis Center. Donations of baby items and quilts were given to Vance Waitland of the Rainbow Room – a charity we have been helping since 1999. Donations of linens, food and quilts were given to Amy Karr of the Family Crisis Center.

Business: Barbara Slimp reported that she and Evelyn Peacock had been working on kits that were available for anyone who wanted to put a quilt together for our Quilt Auction for May 2010. She also provided Fat Quarters for several "Turning Twenty" quilts as well as bags of scraps. The fabric was donated by Barbara and Evelyn and from Barbara's mother's "stash". Barbara lost her mother recently and has honored us with several fabrics from her "stash" to be used in making the baby quilts as well as quilts for the auction. Barbara and Evelyn reported that Country Stitches Quilt Shop in Burleson provided several bolts of fabric to be used as backing for the quilts. All quilt kits were signed for as well as several Fat Quarters. The bags of scrap also found new homes.

New Business: The Budget Committee will present the proposed 2009-2010 budget at the January meeting.

Show-n-Tell: Providing show-n-tell items were Susan Stone – quilt, Barbara Slimp – 5 quilts, Cyndy Finnell – 2 Christmas wall hangings made using felted sweaters, Evelyn Peacock – quilt, Etta Miller – table topper, Kathi Hull – quilt, Georgene Holt – tote, Miriam McCurdy – placemats and a punch needle picture.

At 8:30pm, Sandra McCartney made a motion to adjourn, and was seconded by Delores Mayfield. The motion passed and the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted by
Cyndy Finnell

Judith Stone won a red ribbon in the Hand Quilted Pieced Division of the Go Texan Quilt Show during the Houston Stock Show in March. The Go Texan Committee of the Houston Stock Show provides scholarships to FFA students in participating counties.

Sorry I am late with this but the picture got mixed up with my yearbook pics and I actually found it when my computer at school crashed.—Sonya
