President's Message

What a great month! Our auction was a great success and our donation quilt was a big hit with everyone. I would like to thank all of you that participated in the auction and selling tickets on the donation quilt. Our guild is very fortunate to have such dedicated members. All of you have made my year. We can now rest and decide what charities we will help. We have more money this year than we have ever had since I have been a member and that makes me very proud.

Thanks again for making our auction great.

Have a Happy Quilt Day!!!
Evelyn

June Meeting - Monday, June 8, 2009

Our Program for June will be given by Sandy Hammons the owner of "Sandy's Quilt Shop" in Burleson. She will be giving a trunk show, lecture, show and tell concerning the Surprising Things One Can Do with a Serger". Did you know one could even quilt with their Serger? I have and Sandy will show you several examples. These machines do a lot of things our regular sewing machines cannot do and Sandy will show us some of them. Her program was supposed to be in August and I am truly grateful that she is going to do it early for us.

CHANGE OF PLANS – PROGRAM FOR JUNE

There will be no workshop in June. Barbara Slimp's mother has taken ill and needs all of Barbara's attention right now. We have rescheduled the lecture and workshop on "Stack 'N Wack Quilts" to August. If you signed up for the workshop and paid your money and want it back because you cannot make it in August let me know.

2009 Donation Quilt

I want to tell each of you wonderful members who worked so hard at making our 2009 Donation Quilt a success, how much I personally appreciate your efforts. From the ones who were able to help by making blocks, to the ones who sold tickets, to the very special ones who bought the tickets themselves in order to be sure this made money for our charities, you are to be congratulated! Special thanks goes to our great president, Evelyn Peacock, for the beautiful quilting; to D'Andrea Kral who so generously donated the lovely backing, and to Sherri Leal for making the nice cards we were able to distribute for advertising. And Sandra McCartney and Darla Bradshaw tried so hard to get our local paper to run an article about the drawing to be held during the Auction but the Times-Review refused. In spite of this one problem, it was truly a combined effort and with your help we were able to raise $2,358.00!!—Barbara Slimp

July Program

Our July Program will be “Rag Quilts”. It will be a trunk show/demo format. We will have a trunk who of all the Rag Quilts members have made. After the trunk show several members will be demonstrating the process to make a Rag Quilt. Everyone so enjoyed the Schoolhouse format we used earlier in the year I thought we would try this out.

Quilt Auction A Success

Thanks to our members, our families and our community friends our auction was able to bring in $5125.00. That could not had happened without your donations. Thanks also to everyone who came and helped set up and stayed to clean up. And thanks to those we purchased items.

You are the Best!
Sandra
