President's Message

Thank you to everyone that participated with the Ice Cream Social and Quilt Auction last month. We raised a lot of money to continue the good works of this guild. Many of the projects the guild is involved in will benefit from the money raised last month. I marvel at all the good our guild does. We will be giving out two scholarships this year, giving Walls and Hugley approximately 100 receiving blankets for needy children, and just think of all the children that get our quilts at the Rainbow Room, Children's Advocacy Center, and Operation Blessing. Our food and school supply drives help a lot of family's make ends meet. We have a lot to feel blessed about and I am glad we as an organization can give so much back.

Remember the Nominating Committee is working hard to fill next years Board positions. Please help out if you can. If everyone helps out no one person is left to do all the work. If you have not held a Board position in a while or not at all please help if asked or better yet volunteer. The more involved you are the more people you will meet and get to know.

Thank you,

Judith Stone
